Reiki Practitioner Course Case Study and Presentation Policy

Reiki Tradition Terms & Conditions

These Terms and Conditions apply to your contract with Reiki Tradition when you enrol onto one of our Accredited Reiki Courses. We believe that they are fair and clear. Please read the notes below carefully.

Reiki Tradition is your Accredited Reiki Training Provider

1. When you book a course with Reiki Tradition our policy is to provide you with training towards an Accredited Reiki Practitioner Qualification in Reiki (ie Reiki 1st and 2nd Degree).
2. All our Reiki Courses are an Academic Degree in a Reiki Professional Qualification.
3. All our courses meet the syllabus standards of the Qualifications Credit Framework (QCF), the Core Curriculum, the National Occupational Standards, the Standards and Code of Conduct as set out by the Federation of Holistic Therapists (FHT) and the Complementary and National Healthcare Council.
4. All courses have been Accredited by the FHT.
5. All Reiki Tradition Accreditation Certification can be viewed upon request.
6. All Case Study & Treatment Forms will be supplied by us.
7. Upon receipt of the completed Case Study and Treatment Forms (as per Section 10 below) by Reiki Tradition a Presentation Evening for certification will be arranged.
8. The Presentation Evenings are usually held on a Sunday evening from 7.00pm until 9.00pm (two hours)

Your Commitment to us:

When you book onto any of our Courses you agree to all our Terms and Conditions as in the policy set out by us.

9. To attend for the duration of the Course(s):

A total qualification time of 240 hours of study over a minimum period of 9 months. There is no maximum period, students can work at their own pace towards this qualification.

- e. Question and Answer session.
- f. Presentation of certification (including photographs).
- g. Close.

12. The Presentation Evening is the completion process of your selected course.

13. Cancellation of Presentation

Although we do our utmost to keep to the Presentation Evening set dates, occasionally due to situations beyond our control, the date has to be changed. In event of a change in date:

- a. We will arrange a date to the nearest possible 'next Sunday' to the one set
- b. We will give you, the student, as much notice as possible of any new dates(s).
- c. We will try to keep times as per the original presentation 7pm until 9pm
- d. We will also try to contact all the students to see if the new date is acceptable (we aim to keep all students together in the same group wherever possible).

14. If a Student Cannot Attend the Presentation:-

- 1. We thoroughly understand that for many reasons a student may not be able to attend the presentation and may have to cancel. We must make it clear the presentation is part of the course the student attended (see Section 9 (d)). This is the section of the course where the student officially becomes accredited upon receiving certification. Students therefore have to attend a presentation within 12 months of completing the qualification.

In such circumstances we will:-

- a. Provide the student with the dates of our next presentation
- b. Offer a 2nd presentation date
- 2. If no presentation date is selected then Reiki Tradition will dispose of the certificate/presentation items after a period of 12 months has elapsed.
